

AVOIR (to have)

Avoir in French means "to have." Unlike the ER verbs, avoir is an irregular verb. In other words, it does not follow patterns like the ER verbs.

je + avoir = j'ai

tu + avoir = tu as il + avoir = il a elle + avoir = elle a qui + avoir = qui a

nous + avoir = nous avons

vous + avoir = vous avez

ils + avoir = ils ont

elles + avoir = elles ont

Paul et Marie + avoir = Paul et Marie ont

What does it mean in English?

avoir (to have)

J'ai...

I have...

I do have...

I am having...

Nous avons...

We have...

We do have...

We are having...

Tu as...

You have...

You do have...

You are having...

Vous avez...

You have

You do have...

You are having...

Il a...

He has...

He does have...

He is having...

Ils ont...

They have...

They do have...

They are having...

Elle a...

She has...

She does have...

She is having...

Elles ont...

They have...

They do have...

They are having...

Qui a...?

Who has...?

Who does have...?

Who is having...?

Paul et Marie ont...

Paul and Marie have...

Paul and Marie do have...

Paul and Marie are having...

More Vocabulary Words

- l'auto (f) = the car
- la voiture = the car
- le garçon = the boy
- la fille = the girl
- l'homme (m) = the man
- la femme = the woman
- le crayon = the pencil
- le stylo = the pen
- la gomme = the eraser
- la règle = the ruler
- le livre = the book
- le cahier = the notebook